

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1904. 8 A M

NO. 49

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Dan Patch paced a mile in 2:02 1/2 at Indianapolis.

W. Holland, of Ohio county, sold 100 poplar trees at $30.

B. D. Carter bought two livery horses last week at $75.

Waterboy will be retired from the race track to the stud.

Albert Gooch bought of A. T. Nannely a mule for $150.

Lutes & Co. sold to J. C. Erbanks 100 stock ewes at $3.75.

C. C. Gover sold to E. P. Woods seven 220-pound hogs at $5.

W. P. Anglin, the well-known Lexington horseman, is dead.

Sixteen horses were burned to death in a livery stable fire at Topeka, Kansas.

Lutes & Co. sold to T. J. Hill, Sr., 80 ewes at $3.75 and 25 to O. J. Crow at same price.

For sale, seedrye and bluegrass seed, extra quality. A. W. Carpenter, Moreland, Ky.

The Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association decided not to hold a State Fair this year.

Two work horses for sale—one four and the other eight years old. T. D. Newland, Stanford.

S. H. Baughman sold to Meier & Huffman, of Danville, seven 1,000-pound heifers at $10.

J. D. Eads & Sons bought 20 1,000 to 1,100 pound cattle in Wayne county last week at $1 to $1.50.

George W. Robinson bought of E. J. Thieser his 255-acre farm near Shakerstown, Mercer county, for $16,000.

B. G. Fox & Co. will be at Lancaster Monday to buy 100 mule colts and 50 yearlings. Mules received day of purchase.

A heavy rain and windstorm passed through Montgomery county Sunday, doing much damage to growing crops and farm buildings.

LOST.—Black sow, some white in face, weight about 225 pounds, in good condition. A reward for her return to A. W. Carpenter, Moreland, Ky.

S. J. Bell sold to C. T. Bohon five mules for $650. D. R. Brown sold C. G. Bohon one span of mules for $335 and a span of horses for $240.—Casey News.

Chas. Lutes sold to J. C. Neal 100 ewes at $3.75. He also sold to H. B. Campbell, of Jessamine, 270 extra good ewes at $3.90 on the cars at McKinney.

Lutes & McGuire sold to J. W. Pace, of Clark, 570 ewes put on the cars at Stanford at $3.90. Mr. Pace was formerly a partner of Mr. Lutes in the lamb and sheep trade in Clark county.

Maj. Delmar, the champion trotting gelding, equaled the world's record, 2:02 1/2, held by Crescens, at the Empire track, in New York Saturday, in an exhibition with a runner on each side but none in front.

According to the weekly trade review the fall trade has expanded slowly, apparently on account of crop uncertainties and existing labor troubles. These conditions ruling most lines of distribution result in an irregular trade situation.

The sudden appearance of Texas fever among Louisville cattle will cause the issuance of an order by Dr. F. T. Eisenman, State veterinarian, preventing butchers from driving Southern cattle along streets frequented by native cattle. Only one case has been reported.

B. F. Slavin, of this county, took his pair of fine mare mules to the Harrodsburg Fair, and in the ring for best team of mare mules won first money, and for the best mare mule any age he got first money on one and second on the other. This a splendid team of mules; one of the best that has been in this county for some time.—Advocate.

No Substitute Offered.

Say what you will about druggists of fering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still stands that 99 out of 100 druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when the best remedy for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know it is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. Sold by all druggists.

Leander Dunn, Jr., of Lee City, Montgomery county, while gathering apples lost his hold and fell to the ground, a distance of 15 feet. He struck on his head, bursting the skull and his brains were scattered on the ground.

Mrs. Ada Richardson, wife of a farmer of Methuen, Mass., was stabbed to death in a Boston lodging-house by a man with whom she had been rooming.

Rev. Michael Healey, of Tiffin, O., fell from a window of the parsonage at Youngstown, O., where he was a guest and was probably fatally hurt.

Harvey Allen and Robert Harbort were killed by a train near Owensboro, the supposition being that they went to sleep on the track.

MATRIMONIAL.

James Smith, aged 56, and Miss Ida Pittman, 22, were married by Judge Bailey yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Smith, of Richmond, celebrated their golden wedding last week.

Miss Lucy Broughton, daughter of County Clerk Broughton, of Bell, was married to Dr. Mason Combs, of Hyden. James L. Payne, a widower of 60, and Miss Sarah Stephens, 21, were joined heart and hand at David Oaks yesterday.

Granville Saylor, a widower of 52, and Mrs. Ida Baker, a widow of 22, were married yesterday by Rev. K. D. Noaks near Crab Orchard.

Marriage license was issued yesterday to James L. Payne and Miss Sarah Stephens. They were married at the home of David Noaks.

The engagement of Miss Mary Mulligan, daughter of Judge James H. Mulligan, of Lexington, to Frank Stevens, of Middlesboro has been announced.

The marriage of Miss Willie Verbeon Dawson, eldest daughter of Judge W. L. Dawson, to Mr. C. I. Dorsey, of Covington, took place in Louisville instead of Covington, as our types made us say last issue.

The marriage of Rev. L. H. Blanton, vice-president of Central University, to Mrs. Myra C. Bracken, of Lebanon, is announced to take place at the residence of J. W. Tate, near Wilmore, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, Aug. 17th.

Mr. Ben Herndon, son of Capt. Wm. Herndon, the well-known attorney of Lancaster and Miss Mattie Mae Robinson, also of that place, eloped to Jellico, Tenn., Sunday and were married. The groom is in the revenue business and is a fine young man, while his bride, who is a daughter of Mr. T. B. Robinson, is a pretty and accomplished young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Menefee, of Stanford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Mr. Geo. P. Maury, of Pittsburg, Penn. The wedding will be celebrated at the home, "Maplewood," Stanford, Ky., on the 24th of August. Miss Menefee has for several years been a member of the faculty of the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf at Pittsburg, which position she has only recently resigned. Mr. Maury is proprietor of a well-known Metallurgical Chemistry concern in Pittsburg.—Danville Advocate.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The protracted meeting at the Mt. Vernon church resulted in 16 additions. Rev. Gilbert Glass will preach at Walnut Flat at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, next.

Eld. J. G. Livingston's meeting at Watt's Chapel closed Sunday night with six additions. He began a meeting at Hall's Gap yesterday.

Rev. T. S. Leland, pastor of the M. E. church at Victor, Col., has been ordered away from there because of his interest in the mining troubles.

The Neale creek church will give a picnic at the church next Saturday, Aug. 20, to which everybody is invited. A pleasing program has been arranged.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church in Lancaster the last of this month. Rev. W. T. Brooks, of Indiana, will assist the pastor, Rev. F. M. Tindler.

The Bible is the greatest hatchet or smasher in existence. It put a sling to David's hand to annihilate Goliath, it slew the Philistines, it put a jaw bone in Sampson's hand and smashed Sodam and Gomorrah. It is my most formidable weapon in smashing the whiskey evil, says Carrie Nation.

The custom of building churches on bridges was common 100 years and more ago. Several of these old buildings are still left in Europe. The Chapel of Our Lady still stands on the bridge which spans the Don at Rotterdam. The little chapel was built in the 15th century and was restored about 100 years ago. For several years, however, it has been used as a tobacco shop.

Rev. W. J. Harney, in a sermon at Yelvington, declared war against buggy riding by young ladies and gentlemen, and expressed the opinion that the manufacturers of narrow-seated buggies would not go to heaven. The boys and girls who indulge in buggy-riding are as near heaven as they want to be at present and care not a rap what becomes of the manufacturer of the vehicle.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Chairman Taggart has opened democratic national headquarters in New York, and after two days of organization work he will go to White Sulphur Springs to attend the Davis notification on Wednesday.

The national republican committee has issued a synopsis of the party campaign book which is soon to be placed in circulation.

NEWS NOTES.

A son and heir to the Russian throne was born at Peterhof palace.

Retail liquor dealers at Mayeville have raised the prices of drinks.

Prince Henry, of Prussia, his wife and eldest son will come to America in two weeks.

George L. Torrey, under charge of embezzlement at Denver, Col., committed suicide.

Allen Gibson, a farmer, was killed by dynamite while blasting stumps in Daviess county.

Turkish troops are reported to have destroyed two American villages in Asiatic Turkey.

Mrs. Mabel Burns was shot and killed at Chicago by her husband, Michael Burns, who escaped.

Stripes for all convicts, except incorrigibles, in New York State prisons have been abolished.

May, little daughter of Robert Thomas, of Jackson, fell into a cistern at their home and was drowned.

A police commandant and two policemen, who killed two Americans in Mexico, were sentenced to be shot.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick is said to have sailed from Antwerp for New York, registering under the name of Miss Rose Ingram.

One man was killed and 40 injured in a wreck on the Tennessee Central. The accident was caused by the breaking of a flange wheel.

A careful revision of the list of dead and missing victims of the Eden, Colo., wreck indicates that the number of lives lost was fully 100.

Henry Heines fell dead in the Covington police court just as the judge fined him $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. He had never been in trouble before.

Ten thousand 200 dollars in counterfeit $2 bills were found by secret service agents in the house of Dr. Frank G. Sanft, a prominent Roxbury, Mass., physician.

Philippine day, marking an anniversary of the fall of Manila, was celebrated at the St. Louis Exposition Saturday. Secretary of War Taft was the principal speaker.

Miss Ethel Bourland, the young daughter of Attorney W. E. Bourland, of Dixon, was killed by lightning as she stood in the yard with her hand on a metal clothes line.

On account of Illinois having Negro guardsmen in line of parade at the World's Fair on September 21, Arkansas people refuse to participate in the ceremonies as first arranged.

In a family tragedy on Tradewater river, near Sturgis, Ike Tucker and his wife were killed by their brother-in-law. The woman lost her life in endeavoring to act as peacemaker.

Eight men were drowned at the bottom of a gold mine shaft near Salisbury, N. C., by a torrent of water which overflowed a neighboring pond and flooded the shaft to a depth of 100 feet.

To reimburse them for losses through investments in shipbuilding stock, Charles M. Schwab has sent a check for $7,000 to Mrs. Jos. Schenck, and one for $10,000 to Robert Spring, of Covington.

While in a state of temporary mental aberration, Lucien Wells shot and killed his aged father, W. Y. Wells, and then blew his own brains out with the weapon, at their home near Shelbyville.

County Judge Lightfoot, of McCracken county, has notified all factories in Paducah that permits for children under 14 years of age to work will expire the first Monday in September, when school begins.

A Cotton Belt passenger train, known as the World's Fair Flyer, ran through an open switch at Texarkana, Texas, burying the engineer beneath the wreckage, fatally injuring the fireman and killing a Negro passenger.

Francis J. Hagan was shot and fatally wounded by John R. T. Barbour, at Huber's Station, Bullitt county. The tragedy is the result of the alleged attack made on Barbour by Hagan, during which Barbour was shot on the night of February 14, 1903.

Judge Paynter, of the appellate court, in dissolving the injunction restraining the operation of the Covington poolrooms, says that courts of equity have no jurisdiction to restrain the commission of crimes, nor to enforce moral obligations, and when they seek to do such it is a clear usurpation of the jurisdiction of the criminal court.

Sick Headache.

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and to today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright, of New London, New York. For sale by all druggists.

HUSTONVILLE.

S. M. Owens sold his crop of wheat to D. M. Lipps & Co. at $1 per bushel. Olympian Springs water is to be bottled and placed upon the market with all first-class dealers.

A protracted meeting will begin at our Presbyterian church next Sunday and will continue morning and evening until further notice.

Cut prices on your pants to your measure; $6 pants for $4.50, $7 pants for $5.50, $8 pants for $6.50. These goods are the very best quality and all wool. A. J. Adams.

The debate at Concord church between Revs. Ferrell and Fitzwater, after two days' discussion was closed. Large crowds were in attendance and much interest was manifested. The consensus of opinion favors the argument of Rev. Ferrell.

The champion ball team of Casey county crossed bats here Saturday with the Hustonville team and the game resulted in a score of 15 to 0 in favor of our boys, who are yet unbeaten this season and they are ready to defend their title to the championship of this or adjoining counties.

The death some time ago of that grand old horse, Chester Dare, brings more prominently before his admiring friends his greatest son, Dignity Dare.

The facts of his greatness were evidenced at the Harrodsburg fair last week when with 16 or 18 entries in the model stallion, mare or gelding ring he took first money and in harness, stallion four years and over he took first and the same in the sweepstakes.

Mrs. Tose Hunn and daughter, Mrs. John Coffey, of Columbia, are visiting friends and relatives here. Miss Lizzie Bogle, of Lexington, is home with her mother for a few weeks. Miss Edna Camnitz attended the Harrodsburg fair. Kyle Bohon, of Mt. Auburn, Ill., together with his mother, Mrs. J. T. Bohon and brother, Hudson, are attending the World's Fair. A. J. Adams has rented the handsome cottage of Rev. G. W. Mills on east Main street.

On account of numerous inquiries concerning the welfare of our Graded School I am authorized by the board of trustees to state that the school will commence the second Monday in September in the College building under the supervision of Prof. R. S. Eubank, whose reputation in his profession stands second to none in Kentucky. The tuition for students outside the district will be within the reach of all. Prof. Eubank and family have moved into the College building and all necessary arrangements for the opening of the school will be made at once.

The foundation of the Wheeler residence will be ready for the carpenters this week and the building will be pushed to an early completion. Work on the livery barn of A. B. C. Dinwiddie has commenced and will be ready for business in about 30 days. Work on the Newtonian Hotel began last week and Mr. Phillips, of Campbells ville, who is the architect, is here to see that the work moves briskly and according to contract. The key is to be delivered by Dec. 1st and the handsome building will be another ornament to our rapidly improving city.

Taken with Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by all druggists.

Sunday morning's sea fight in the Straights of Korea was between the Vladivostok squadron and Admiral Kamimura's fleet, and resulted in a victory for the Japanese. The Russian armored cruiser Rurik, was sunk and two other cruisers made their escape to the northward heavily damaged.

Chief Pythian officers estimate that there were at least 8,000 arrivals in Louisville Sunday for the encampment. Five thousand members of the Uniform Rank went into camp at Western Park. The biennial gathering has begun in earnest.

A partnership has been formed between Lewis McQuown, of Bowling Green, and Eli H. Brown, Jr., of Nelson county, for the practice of law at Frankfort.

An epidemic of smallpox, which has broken out in Zion City, is being treated with prayer by Dr. Dowle and his elders.

CLEARANCE SALE AT THE GLOBE!

We have divided our entire stock of Fancy Suits INTO TWO LOTS.

One lot to sell at $10.00.

This includes all our best suits—goods that sold as high as $22. The other lot to sell at $6.00.

In this are all the suits that sold for $8.50 and $10. All sizes from 48 down to small boys sizes. Owing to the backwardness of the season this Spring, we have an unusually good assortment of bargains to offer in this sale. These prices are CASH. None of these goods will be charged.

T. O. MILLER, Danville, Ky.
THE GLOBE.

"Superior Grain Drills."

As an evidence of the superiority of the Superior Drill, there are more of them in use in this county than all the others together. Nothing inferior is imitated. If your drill needs any repair bring it in now, do not wait until you get ready to use it. Oliver Chilled Plows, Disc Harrows, Lever Harrows.

W. H. HIGGINS,
STANFORD, KY.

Pumps! Pumps!

I am a pump man all-over and I sell the Pumping-est Pumps that ever was Pumped and if they don't Pump where I say they will Pump, I will not Pump any money out of the bottom of your pocket. I sell Pumps from $2 to $40 and from 2 to 200 feet deep. THE BUCKEYE FORCE PUMPS needs no introduction. THE RED JACKET PUMP is "So easy to fix." You can replace the valves without removing Pump from well with nothing but a monkey wrench. Roofing, Guttering and Pump work done on short notice and satisfaction guaranteed. Phone 116.

S. H. ALDRIDGE,

Depot Street, Stanford, Ky.

Druggist Confidence.

Confidence---no fear of mistakes---is what we have built our trade upon. KNOWLEDGE, EXPERIENCE, EXACTNESS, CAREFULNESS and PURE MATERIALS are our "stock in trade." When you want things done right; when you want pure drugs; when you are tired of taking chances, come to us. The utmost care in every department---the best service and the best merchandise---is our constant aim.

Dr. W. N. Craig, Pharmacist,
Stanford, Kentucky.

GO TO

W. B. McRoberts, DRUGGIST.
STANFORD.

FOR

LANDRETH'S GARDEN SEED LANDRETH'S GARDEN

WALL PAPER, DRUGS, READY MIXED PAINTS,